[XXVth Year.] THE [No. 1294.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, June 28, 1770.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.

FOR ſome Days paſt many Exceſſes have been committed in this Capital, at Scutari, and in the Quarter of Tophana. The Government, to remedy this Evil, hath judged it proper to put to death ſome of the Authors of theſe Diſorders.

Letters from our Army contradict the Reports ſpread here, that the Ruſſians have taken Bender, Oczakow, and Ibrailow, and that the Tartars had ſubmitted to the Ruſſians. Theſe Letters add, that the Garriſon of Bender lately made a Sally on the Ruſſians with ſuch Succeſs, that the latter have been obliged to raiſe the Siege of Bender with a very conſiderable Loſs.

The Baſhaw of Candia, hath, it is ſaid, informed the Porte that a Ruſſian Squadron of 16 Sail hath appeared off the ſaid Iſland, and that Five Ships of this Squadron were ſailed towards the Morea, and the other Iſles of the Archipelago.

CIVITA VECCHIA, March 23. By ſome Ships lately arrived in this Port we learn, that 14 Men of War from the Ports of Spain, and 20 from thoſe of France, will ſoon ſail to obſerve the Motions of the Ruſſian Fleet.

LONDON.

To the Worthy Inhabitants of the WARD of Farringdon Without.

GENTLEMEN, FREEMEN, and FELLOW-CITIZENS,

I CANNOT ſufficiently acknowledge and applaud the perſevering Spirit and Chearfulneſs with which you haver ſtuggled through the various Difficulties, ariſing from my Inability to attend the Duty of this great and reſpectable Ward. My future Conduct will beſt ſhew the Senſe I have of ſo ſingular an Obligation. The tedious Impriſonment, to which I was ſentenced for the firm Oppoſition I made to a wicked Miniſtry, is at length happily paſſed. By regaining my Liberty this Day, I hope to acquire the Power of rendering you real Services, and, from the ſuperior Rank you have conferred on me, of becoming more eminently uſeful. I ſhall not fail to attend the next Court of Aldermen, when, in Support of your Rights, I mean to lay Claim to, and inſiſt upon, the being admitted and ſworn into Office, as having the Honour of being elected by the general Voice of ſo conſiderable a Part of the City.

It is a particular Satisfaction to me, Gentlemen, that I am to enter on my Duty at a Time when we are governed by ſo excellent a Chief Magiſtrate, and have Sheriffs of the moſt liberal Principles, zealous Promoters of the publick good, and of approved Virtue. But above all I rejoice, that the high Spirit of Liberty, joined with Prudence, Temper, and Intrepidity, in ſo peculiar a Manner now animates the whole Body of the Livery of London. The late Petition and Remonſtrance will reflect Honour on them to the remoteſt Ages. The Engliſh Hiſtory does not give a ſtronger Inſtance of the Uprightneſs of our Countrymen, nor an Example of any Body of Men more untainted by Corruption, more uninfluenced by every Conſideration of Fear or Intereſt, and more calm, yet determined, in a great Cauſe. In the Time of the laſt Stuart King, during the general Confuſion, when the daſtardly Tyrant fled, the principal Nobility and Gentry reſorted to our Guildhall for Protection, and concerted with our Anceſtors, the Citizens of this Metropolis, that generous and equal Syſtem of Power, which was eſtabliſhed by the People at the glorious Revolution, and confirmed by the ſucceeding Parliament in the Bill of Rights. We have ſeen the moſt valuable of thoſe Rights, the Right of Repreſentation in Parliament, openly violated. On this important Occaſion, the Livery of London have ſhewn themſelves the worthy Deſcendants of ſuch Anceſtors. The Petition and Remonſtrance have carried that enormous Grievance to the Throne in a ſpirited and becoming Manner. I truſt that their publick Virtue and Firmneſs will at laſt triumph over the Tyranny of the preſent Adminiſtration, and that our Sovereign will reſtore the Conſtitution, thus ſhaken from its Foundation, by the ſpeedy Diſſolution of a Houſe of Commons, abhorred by all good Men, odious to the whole Nation, and the Validity of whoſe Acts is now daily arraigned by their former Conſtituents. Such a Conſequence I think muſt ſoon follow from the noble Conduct of this City, and of other great and public ſpirited Bodies of Men. After that happy Event, the People of England may expect, from their true Friends in a future honeſt Parliament, the Three eſſential and only effectual Remedies of this diſtempered State, Acts for the Excluſion of Placemen and Penſioners, for the ſhort Duration of Parliaments, and for an equal Repreſentation.

I know, Gentlemen, how much the Power and Wealth of this great City depend on its Trade and Commerce, which have always flouriſhed moſt in the freeſt States, and never arrived at Perfection but under the Patronage of Liberty. I ſhall therefore be ever ready to receive your Directions on theſe important Points, and in whatever relates to the Proſperity of this City, and the particular Intereſt of our Ward. Every probable Plan for the Advancement of the common Welfare, as well as every mercantile Conſideration, ſhall have its due Weight in my Mind. I will ever be a zealous Defender of the Rights and Privileges of the Livery, and of all the Freemen of London. In the Concerns of this extenſive Ward I hope to have the Advice and Aſſiſtance of my Conſtituents, every one of whom may be aſſured of that Attention and Regard which I owe to the[illegible], by whoſe delegated Power I act, and for whoſe Intereſt I accepted this important Truſt. It ſhall be my conſtant and earneſt Endeavour to juſtify to the World the Choice you have been pleaſed to make of me as your Alderman, and to approve myſelf an upright Magiſtrate, and a good Citizen of the Capital of the Britiſh Empire. I am,

Gentlemen, Freemen, and Fellow-Citizens,
With Gratitude and Reſpect,
Your affectionate and obedient humble Servant,
April 18, 1770. JOHN WILKES.

April 21. The Freeholders of Middleſex, it is ſaid, are to aſſemble in Hyde-Park, to accompany John Wilkes, Eſq; to the Houſe of Commons ſoon after their next Meeting, when he intends to go and demand his Seat as Knight of the Shire for that County. And ſo great is the Spirit of the People to carry this grand Point, that it is expected a conſiderable Majority of the Freeholders will go on this Occaſion in Proceſſion.

We are aſſured, that among other Rejoicings for Mr. Wilkes's Enlargement, the following remarkable Inſtance of Merriment was exhibited at Greenwich. A Pariſh Officer there having invited ſome Company, after demoliſhing a Pye that weighed 45lb. drinking out 45 Bottles of Wine, and performing many other Acts of Patriotiſm, purſuant to the cabaliſtical Number, the Officer took his blue Coat off his Back, and parting it into 45 Pieces, diſtributed them among his Gueſts, with which they all departed extremely well ſatisfied.

It is confidently aſſerted, that a very great Perſonage viewed the Illuminations on Wedneſday Night incog. and that he ſeemed affected in the moſt ſenſible Manner by ſo general and uncompelled a Declaration of the People, in Oppoſition to the Meaſures of the Cabinet.

April 23. A private Letter from Berlin ſays, that unleſs the Arrears due to the King of Pruſſia at the Concluſion of the late War, from Great-Britain, is ſpeedily paid, he will invade the Electorate of Hanover with an Army of 40,000 Men.

This Day, about One o'Clock, the Lord Mayor in the State Coach, attended by the Aldermen, Ladbroke, Turner, Trecothick, and Stephenſon, and the Sheriff Townſend, in their reſpective Carriages, went in Proceſſion from the Manſion Houſe to Guildhall, to ſwear in John Wilkes, Eſq; Alderman of Farringdon Ward Without.

April 25. A Cabinet C——l was held on Sunday Night at St. James's upon the News received concerning the Inſurrection at Boſton, at the riſing of which it was reported at the St. James's Coffee Houſe, that a Fleet of Men of War, and Four Regiments, would be diſpatched immediately for North-America.

Yeſterday a Privy Council was held at the Cockpit, ſaid to be in Reference to ſome Diſpatches received from the North American Colonies.

They write from Leghorn, that in a late Skirmiſh between the Corſican Malecontents and a Party of French Troops, in the Heights of Nebbio, One Hundred and Thirty-nine of the latter were cut to Pieces.

Sunday Morning an Expreſs arrived in Town, from Halifax, in Yorkſhire, which brought an Account of a very dangerous Riot between the Militia Soldiers, and the Town's People, in which ſeveral had loſt their Lives.

We hear that Yeſterday an Expreſs was ſent down to Falmouth, to be forwarded by an Advice Boat, with all Expedition, to Gen. Gage, Commander in Chief of the Land-Forces in North-America.

By Letters of undoubted Authority from Bombay, in the Eaſt-Indies, we are informed, that Heyder-Ally is inceſſant in training up his Soldiers in all the Branches of the European Exerciſe; that he gives great Encouragement to Foreigners, and particularly to the French, to enter into his Service; and that among other Improvements he has eſtabliſhed a Manufactory of Guns, and a Foundery for Cannon, on the Model of thoſe in Normandy, in France.

April 26. The Zeal of the Crowd at Guildhall on Tueſday, was greater than their Strength; an Attempt was made by the People to draw the Lord Mayor and Mr. Wilkes in the State Coach from Guildhall to the Manſion-Houſe, but the Weight of it was ſuch, that they were obliged to deſiſt.

By Letters lately received from a Gentleman now on his Travels into Greece, there is an Account that the White Iſland in the Bay of Santerini, which, in 1707, roſe out of the Sea, to the Aſtoniſhment of all Europe, has lately been obſerved to have received very conſiderable Increaſe. This added to the Accounts received in France of the Diſappearance of the Iſland of St. Helena; and in Holland, of the Removal of the Mountains of Bohemia; together with the freſh Eruption of Mount Veſuvius, after an Intermiſſion of Two Years only, a Thing never before known, affords Matter of ſerious Contemplation to ſpeculative People, and it is ſaid, that the Jewiſh Rabbies have conceived Hopes, that theſe Preſages are Forerunners of the Completion of an ancient Prophecy, that is expected, about the preſent Æra, to be fulfilled in Favour of the Reſtoration of their Nation to the promiſed Land.—It is remarkable that the famous Mr. Whiſton predicted ſome very conſiderable Alteration in the Appearance of the Earth about the Year 1770.

From the PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

AS the Happineſs of a Kingdom is proportioned to the Wiſdom of its Governor, the Education of a Prince will be of the higheſt Importance to the People. The Heir to the firſt Office in this Empire is now arrived at a State of Pupilage. Upon him the publick Eye is fixed, with the moſt anxious Attention. His Tutor has undertaken an arduous Employment, in which, if it be his Ambition to acquit himſelf with Reſtitude, a brief Delineation of his Duty cannot offend him.

To the TUTOR of the PRINCE OF WALES.

SIR,

THE Manner in which you execute the Taſk you have undertaken will render your Name either venerable or infamous. As your Prince is young, his Heart is untainted, and therefore ſuſceptible of the beſt Impreſſions. Imprint then upon it this Maxim, of all others moſt momentous, that every Man by Nature is equal. Preeminence is not due to Birth, but Deſert. Teach him to reverence the UNIVERSAL PARENT, to love his Country, and to obey its Laws. Inſpire him with the Deſire of Glory and the Dread of Shame. Convince him, that the higher he is elevated, the leſs he can be concealed; that the more Power he is inveſted with, the more cautiouſly he ſhould act; that a King ſhould be leſs conſpicuous from the Enſigns of State, than the Splendor of his Virtues. Let him never think himſelf a Prince till he has baniſhed Calamity from his Kingdom, reedified its Ruins, annihilated Tyranny, and eſtabliſhed Freedom. A State ſhould ever be preſent to the Mind of its Sovereign. Love to his Subjects alone can ſecure their Affection to him. Arms and Treaſures are inſufficient Guards for Kings: Friends are their beſt Defence, and theſe are to be acquired neither by Force nor by Riches, but Fidelity and good Offices. In the Choice of his Counſellors let him accurately deliberate; when determined, let him confide in the Men of his Choice. To diſtinguiſh between a Friend and an Enemy in Diſguiſe, is a Qualification of the higheſt Worth, and which few Princes have ever poſſeſſed. Deſerved Praiſe will be an Incitement to Virtue, Flattery its moſt baneful Poiſon. To ſuppoſe that thoſe love us, whom we do not eſteem, is an Error; and to demand what they will not give is Injuſtice. Nothing is leſs reſtrained than the human Heart; it acknowledges no Maſter, it knows no Subjection. Let his Breaſt be never opened to Suſpicion, nor his Ear inclined to Calumny. Let him never maſk his Deſigns to others, nor pry into what they would hide. Let him be always what he appears, and he will have no Intereſt to be concealed, he will no more dread the Eye of a Foe than a Friend.

The Title of moſt ſerene implies that a Prince is elevated above the Commotions of Paſſion. The Breach of his Word is deſpicable in him, dangerous to his Subjects. Upon his Veracity depends their Tranquillity, and why ſhould he wiſh to deceive, whoſe Advantage it is that all Men ſhould ſpeak Truth? Let Freedom of Acceſs be proclaimed to the meaneſt of his Subjects. He was not born for himſelf, but the Publick; and then only is he properly employed, when adminiſtring to the publick Good. His firſt Object ſhould be to labour for his People's Happineſs, and to watch for their Preſervation. No Office is more glorious; none more arduous; ſuch a Servitude is the higheſt Dignity! When called to puniſh, Mercy, with the tendereſt Addreſs, ſhould guide his Hand. It ſhould ever be engraved upon the Heart of a Prince, that of all the Virtues, Clemency is moſt divine.

The Life of a King ſhould be a Model to his People. It is by him they will regulate their Conduct. He therefore becomes reſponſible for the Crimes they commit from his Example. How irreproachable then ſhould be his Manners! Teach him to contemn Luxury and to trample upon Pleaſure

Let him ſtudy the Lives of thoſe who have dignified Humanity, that he himſelf may add to their Number. Them he ſhould conſider as Guides in the Road to Glory. Let him compare his Conduct with theirs, and this will elevate his Soul. How ſacred is that Emulation which ariſes from the Love of Virtue! Let him, with equal Attention, conſider the Miſconduct of his Predeceſſors, and that ſhall ſecure him from Deſtruction.

Such, Sir, are the Outlines of your Duty. Accompliſh what you have undertaken. He who partakes of the Glory ſhould ſhare likewiſe the Toil.

JUNIUS.

EDINBURGH, April 17.

We learn from Dumfries, that the ſo long ſought for perpetual Motion, has been at laſt found out by one Mr. Kirk. He got his firſt Machine made by a Country Blackſmith, and is at preſent preparing another in Braſs, which will be ſoon ſent to London.

NEW-YORK, June 18.

A Gentleman from the Mole, brings the following Account, which may be depended on as Authentic.

The Spirit of Liberty ſo much prevails in the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, that the general TOAST, is LIBERTY. The Inhabitants here are wiſhing for a War, thinking their Neighbours the Engliſh will ſoon ſettle them under that happy Conſtitution. The Gentleman that was the Ringleader of the late Revolt in that Iſland, was ſent home to France, in order to have a Recompence from the Court there, for his turning a JUDAS and betraying all thoſe who was in the Conſpiracy along with him.—He was well received there, and ſent back in a Frigate to Porta Prince: At his Arrival, he was put in Irons on board of the Ship for ſome Days, until they could have a new Set made for him, then carried on Shore and put into the Common Jail: He there lives on Bread and Water, and is ſo confin'd that his Wife is not permitted to ſee him.

We are informed, That there was a Bill before the Parliament for permitting us to ſtrike Paper Money, agreeable to the Bill framed here; and that it had Two Readings, and was likely to paſs.

Mr. GAINE,

Pleaſe to give the following a Place in your Paper.

ON Monday laſt a Number of Merchants and Mechanicks waited on our Committee, deſiring the Senſe of this City ſhould be taken by Subſcription, whether an Alteration ſhould not be made in our Non-importation Agreement; in Conſequence of which a Meeting was called the ſame Evening, the following Advertiſement drawn up, and Perſons appointed to go through the different Wards, and to each Inhabitant propoſe the following Queſtions. Do you approve of a general Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, except Tea, and other Articles which are or may be ſubject to a Duty on Importation? Or, Do you approve of our Non-importation Agreement continuing in the Manner it now is? Subſcriptions were taken in accordingly, when a Majority appeared for Importation agreeable to this Advertiſement, on which the Committee ſent off Expreſſes to Boſton and Philadelphia, requeſting their Concurrence.

WHEREAS an Act was paſſed laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for repealing the Act impoſing a Duty on Paper, Paint and Glaſs, imported from Great-Britain into the Colonies, by which a Step is made towards reconciling the Differences that unhappily ſubſiſt between the Mother Country and the Colonies. We the Subſcribers, in Attention to this conciliating Meaſure, and at the ſame Time to ſhew the juſt Regard we have for the Liberties of theſe Colonies, which we conſider as infringed by all Acts of Parliament, impoſing Taxes without our Conſent, do agree, that we will not import or receive from Great-Britain any Article or Articles, upon which a Duty is laid or hereafter may be laid, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America: And whereas the aforeſaid Act, repealing the Duties on Paper, Paint and Glaſs, will not take Place till after the firſt of December next; We do alſo agree, not to receive or import any of the ſaid Articles, until after the ſaid firſt of December next: And whereas the Duty on Tea ſtill remains unrepealed, We do hereby alſo further agree, that we will not import from Great-Britain any Tea, until the ſaid Duty be taken off; all other Articles, which are free of Duty, we agree to import as uſual. If any Goods ſhall arrive contrary to this and our former Agreement, they ſhall be re-ſhipped immediately. And any Perſons, Maſters of Veſſels or others, that ſhall import, or receive a Conſignment of any dutiable Goods, ſhall be deemed Enemies to the Colonies, and treated accordingly.

But that this Agreement ſhall not take Place until we deſire the Concurrence of Boſton and Philadelphia, and receive their Anſwer by Return of Expreſs, when, if this Agreement ſhould be rejected by the other Colonies, the Senſe of this Town will be again taken.

Meſſ. Sears and Vandervort requeſt Mr. Hugh Gaine will give the following a Place in his next Monday's Paper.

Gentlemen, New-York, 14*th* June, 1770.

AS the End of our Appointment was to prevent the leaſt Infraction of the Non importation Agreement; and as many of this Committee ſeem diſpoſed of breaking through the ſaid Agreement, we the Subſcribers, in Juſtice to our Conſtituents, cannot act in future as Members of a Committee, with Men who are uſing every Effort to counteract the very Deſign of our Appointment.

To Mr. ISAAC LOWE, Chairman of the Committee of Merchants. } ISAAC SEERS, PETER VANDERVORT.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 28.

On Friday laſt came to this City, in his Way to the Northward, Sir William Draper, Knight of the Bath.

We are informed, that on Thurſday the 14th Inſtant, a moſt horrid Murder was committed in Prince George's County—Mr. William Elſon, who was Overſeer for Mr. Stephen Weſt, walking with ſome of his Negroes in the Woods, and having before threatened to chaſtiſe One of them for an Offence, was ſtruck with a Club, which occaſioned him to fall. After this, ſuppoſing him dead, they carried him ſome Diſtance, and covered him with Leaves, but ſoon diſcovered that he had crept out of the Place where they had put him: They then, notwithſtanding he begged his Life, cut his Throat from Ear to Ear with a broad Axe, and buried him near the Threſhold of a Tobacco-houſe Door.
